Unfinished Business

Coupons/Troopons were not completed this month. It was suggested that we consider holding a coupon clipping party – Clip & Sip.

Our next movie night will be Saturday, November 6. Robin Maltese reported she would be sending an email to the many volunteers who had responded to Caitlin's email to be on the committee regarding raffle items. Collette volunteered to also join this committee. The movie shown will be either Top Gun or True Lies. We were reminded to bring a comfortable outdoor chair.

Because we had only two volunteers for Poppies, this project will be tabled for now. (Poppies occur twice a year, Veterans Day and National Poppy Day – the Friday before Memorial Day. Committee duties would include arranging for the location, setting up, taking down, manning the table, and decorating the table.)

Foster Closet, which would fall under the Children and Youth category, will be our next box/drive. Foster Coset reached out to us and a flyer was emailed to everyone of their needs: Kids toothpaste, Halloween Costumes (infant-adults), Toddlers toothpaste, Puzzles (up to 300 only), Infant Toys, Coloring Books, Toddler Toys, New Infant and Toddler Socks, Jewelry, Girl Infant Mittens and hats, Dr Brown & Avent Bottles, Sippy Cups. Bring in the items at the September meeting. Reed will arrange transport to the donation site the Saturday after, though someone will need to get the box(es) to her after the meeting. Any unanswered questions, please refer to the Foster Closet website: <https://www.fostercloset.org/>.
